AME Church Holds North Miss. Annual Conference Bishop Gibbs Makes Appointments

Shaw, Miss., Nov. 24 — (Special) — During the week of November 12th, Bishop C. A. Gibbs presided over the Sixty-fourth Session of the North Mississippi Annual Conference which convened in Parker's Chapel A.M.E. Church, Shaw, Mississippi, Reverend E. A. Deeds, host pastor.

The Conference Welcome program was held Tuesday, November 11th. A very warm and heartfelt welcome was extended from the residents of Shaw through their representatives. In the Bishop's response, he assured the group of a very full week for the Master.

At 9:30 a.m., November 13th, the opening Session commenced with a very moving and constructive message by the Reverend G. R. Haughton, Pastor, St. Matthew A. M. E. Church, Greenville followed by the Holy Communion which was administered by Bishop Gibbs along with the North Mississippi Annual Conference Presiding Elders, Reverends: B. J. Jackson, W. M. Ashe, and H. P. Andrews.

Among the visitors introduced at this Session were: Mrs. Anne E. Heath, Connectional President of the Woman's Missionary Society A.M.E. Church, and Mrs. J. H. Thomas, Evangelist, Ninth Episcopal District.

During the afternoon Session, Bishop Gibbs received pastoral reports from the Mound Bayou and Greenville Districts. The Conference was also addressed at this Session by Mrs. Heath, Mrs. Thomas, and District President of the Woman's Missionary Society, (Continued on Page Eight)

Madison County Election Com. Meets With Negro Democrats

CANTON, Miss., Nov. 24 — (DSN) — The Madison County Election Committee met with the Madison County Negro Democrats Association last week, to discuss the conditions the Negroes of Madison County faced when they went to the polls Tuesday, November 4th.

It was brought out at this conference by the Madison County Negro Democrats President, Johnnie Green, that only one polling place in Madison County to knowledge, to date, intimidated a Negro as he approached the polls to vote. Mr. Sam Loeb assured President Green that this would not happen again as long as he was on the committee.

The trouble was that a white bystander cursed at the would-be voter frightening him from the polls.

Thirty-seven members of the association were present at this meeting. This meeting was arranged by Johnnie Green, president, and Asa Slaughter, vice president of the association.

Southern Governors Answer Call To Help Ike Solve Nation's Race Problem By Electing Talmadge of Ga., Chmn.

Texas Offers Plan Aimed At Stopping Pressure For FEPC Law

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 24 — (DSN) — A white man from Texas who has had outstanding success in the field of race-relations urged Southern Governors last Tuesday to help President elect Eisenhower solve the nation's race problem. Neville G. Penrose, chairman of the Texas "Good Neighbor Commission," suggested a "Grass Roots Approach." He said it would reverse the order of any Federal Fair Employment (FEPC) Law. The executives of the 16 Southern states ended their two-day session at New Orleans with election of Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia as chairman. He succeeds Gov. Allen Shivers of Texas. Gov. Shivers introduced Penrose who said:

Ike Lauds Georgia Pastor For Attacking Race Bias

AUGUSTA, Ga. — Gen. Eisenhower attended church here Sunday and praised the minister "shooting from the hip" in denouncing those people who use religion as a cloak for racial prejudice. The presiding minister spoke to an overflow crowd in the small brick church that the Eisenhowers attended Sunday. In the heart of the Southland, Rev. Massey Mott Heltzel, in his sermon struck out at the Ku Klux (Continued on Page Eight)

NEGRO ATTORNEYS SET FOR LAWSUITS TO WIPE OUT JIM-CROW IN INTERSTATE TRAVEL

WASHINGTON, D. C. — A Negro attorney who won unrestricted railroad dining car rights for his race is preparing for another round of lawsuits to wipe out all segregation in interstate travel. Elmer Henderson of Washington, D. C., says the next court test will involve segregation in Southern Railroad terminals where Negroes are required to use separate entrances and rest rooms. "An early effort will be made to clear up any doubtful points by starting other suits," he said. He added that the major campaigns in the anti-segregation battle already have been won. A series of four key judgments over the last 10 years has given traveling Negroes near equality of treatment, he said. The most recent decision came in January 1951 when the fourth Federal circuit court of appeals in Richmond, Virginia outlawed so-called "Jim Crow" coaches as an unconstitutional burden on interstate travel. A week ago, the Supreme Court in effect upheld that decision by refusing to review it. The decision

U. S. Favors Hearing Of South African Dispute

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 24 — Just how far the United States will go in its plan to aid the South Africans fight against segregation is still undetermined. But last week the United States Ethiopia, Brazil and Yugoslavia endorsed the Arab-Asian bloc's proposal that a new United Nations committee should attempt to revive negotiations on South Africa's treatment of her Indian minority. The four nations, supported a recommendation that the six year old complaint of discrimination against Indian residents be tackled by a three-member group that (Continued on Page Two)

DANCE IN STREET FOLLOWS PEARL BAILEY-LOUIS BELLSON MARRIAGE IN LONDON

LONDON, Nov. 24 — (DSN) — A dance in the street that "sent" hundreds of British "hepcats" on a wild bebop celebration followed the marriage of Pearl Bailey, voluptuous hip shaking Negro blues singer and Louis Bellson, Jr., white Drummer in Negro Duke Ellington's band, which took place here last Wednesday afternoon. The Bellsons swung and jigged, letting of steam after a "real gone" ceremony that seemed to be a nightmarish ordeal of things gone wrong. Miss Bailey, wearing a mink coat and flashing a huge diamond ring, showed up ten minutes late for the civil ceremony at Caxton Hall Registry. Bellson, also late, appeared in an ill-fitting blue suit he had to borrow because his clothes trunk failed to arrive in time from the United States. He had to search frantically for the ring before placing it on the singer's finger. And the best man, Jose Ferrer, (Continued on Page Six)

South Africa Supreme Courts Rule Against White Supremacy Pose New Threats Of Grave Civil Strife

BLOEMFONTEIN, South Africa — (Special) — Declaration that Prime Minister Daniel F. Malan's white supremacy laws were illegal here last Thursday posed new threats of grave civil strife in this race-torn country. Such was the reaction after the South African Appeal Court unanimously branded the Prime Minister's high court of parliament as illegal.

The five-judge court was the highest here until creation of the Parliamentary Tribunal. It dismissed the government's appeal against the supreme (lower) court's ruling that the Parliamentary Tribunal acted unconstitutionally in setting itself as the highest court to rule on constitutional questions. BAR KEY LAW The appeal was made by the (Continued on Page Seven)

Students Pay Tribute To Slain African Miners

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 24 — (DSN) — With a special program in Sale Hall Chapel Sunday students from Nigeria, West Africa, who are enrolled at Morehouse College observed what is being celebrated throughout their country as "National Day of Mourning." On November 18, 1949, twenty-one Nigerian coal miners were shot to death at Enugu, Eastern Nigeria, during a demonstration associated with a sit-down strike staged by the miners for a small (Continued on Page Five)

NOTED FLYER AND FAMILY KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 24 — (Special) — Thirty-seven-year-old Charles W. McDonald, one of the most famous Negro flyers and his entire family were killed in a plane crash Sunday near Dahlart, Tex. McDonald, 35, their two children — Charles W. Jr., 5, and Charlene, were killed when the single-engine plane crashed. He was apparently flying the aircraft. A man believed to be Charles

Ross of this city also died in the air tragedy. He was reportedly taking flight lessons from McDonald. According to James Anderson, 1222 E. 49th street, friend of McDonald and vice president of the 3-year-old Fleet Wing Flying club of which the dead flyer was a charter member, the McDonalds were en route to Los Angeles from Guthrie, Okla. Mrs. McDonald and the two (Continued on Page Eight)
